

English C1.2 (40 hours)

Prerequisites

Module B2.2b or other certification of B2

Textbook

Textbook and required course material will be announced by the first day of class

Course content

Topics

Topics will be announced in class

Communication goals

Reading and Listening comprehension (interpretive skills): You will be able to deal appropriately with different genre and registers; understand relevant spoken and written texts and jot down the main ideas; extract information and opinions from relevant texts; retrace the organizational structure of a complex text.

Oral production (presentation and interpersonal skills): You will be able to produce various genre of speaking with appropriate registers; give an oral summary of complex information; describe in detail things, people and events; clearly define causal connections; give a well-structured presentation on complex topics using a logical structure (e.g., pros and cons); interact with a partner in order to discuss pros and cons, express one's point of view, and make a valid argument and support it with relevant examples.

Written production: You will be able to produce various genre of writing with appropriate registers; summarize complex information; compose relevant formal and informal texts; deal appropriately with different genre and language registers.

Grammar

Review and consolidation of English grammar and advanced issues related to above skills.